

MANHEIM U.S. AT A GLANCE

Manheim, a Cox Automotive brand, is the world's largest wholesale automotive marketplace. Since 1945, we've set the standard for supporting clients with the tools they need to move used vehicle inventory. Whether they choose to do business at one of our 80+ physical locations or online, clients can access our comprehensive suite of services, including buying and selling, assurance, reconditioning, floor planning, logistics and solutions that support the entire vehicle lifecycle. Today, we're bringing our digital and physical solutions together into a seamless, unified marketplace so clients can transact effortlessly from anywhere.
